

November 2020 Events and Opportunities

List compiled for the DreamND Community

Please contact Leonor at lwangens@nd.edu with any questions.

CAMPUS OPPORTUNITIES

Dream ND Website Updates

- Check out the updates to the Dream ND webpage called Program and Opportunities for Students. We hope these resources are helpful!
- We are in the process of working on a Dream ND Directory of Student Programs and Opportunities. The directory is a student resource with a growing list of campus programs and opportunities that are evaluated according to levels of accessibility for the Dream ND student population. We will make an announcement to you when the director goes live.

University Counseling Center

The UCC provides a safe, confidential, nonjudgmental space where students can feel free to explore a wide variety of concerns and issues. The UCC operates from a stepped care model and offers a wide variety of services to assist students including self-help resources, drop-in hours, workshops, group counseling, brief goal oriented individual counseling, couples counseling, psychiatric evaluations and medication management, substance use assessments, nutrition counseling, and 24/7 crisis intervention services.

Campus Ministry Programming and Events

Need To Talk

Campus Ministry is here for you to talk about anxieties, challenges, opportunities for hope, your spiritual journey, thoughts about vocation and anything else that might be on your mind and heart. Through this ministry, Campus Ministry is available to listen, offer guidance, and share the wisdom and hope our faith provides. Anyone can come to Coleman Morse Building from Monday-Thursday from 7pm-9pm to talk. Alternatively, you can also fill out a form and Campus Minister will respond to you.

The Kellogg Institute for International Studies

The Kellogg Institute has a variety of academic and research opportunities that are open to the Dream ND community at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Although much of the research and fellowship descriptions on their website focus on global topics and abroad locations, please know that you can still participate in most Kellogg programs without traveling abroad, and there have already been several of your Dream ND peers who have taken advantage of these opportunities.

Master of a Global Affairs

Information session October 29 at 10am

This 2-year professional degree will prepare you for skilled, effective leadership and careers in government, nongovernmental and civil society organizations, and the private sector. See more info at <https://keough.nd.edu/master-of-global-affairs/>

Thinking about applying to a Notre Dame Graduate School Program?

Are you interested in applying to Notre Dame Graduate Programs but don't know where to start or have questions about financial aid options? You are welcome to contact Nyree McDonald at Nyree.V.McDonald.67@nd.edu

The Washington Program application is now open for fall 2021 and spring 2022.

Deadline: November 29, 2020

The Washington Program is an excellent opportunity for students to build their resume and experience big city living while earning academic credit. All students have a part-time internship of their choosing! Sophomores and juniors of any major are welcome. The Washington Program is under the Political Science Department - not NDI - and requires a separate application. Students interested in either fall 2021 or spring 2022 should apply by November 29th. Contact Claudia Francis or check out more info here: WashingtonProgram.nd.edu

Institute for Latino Studies Events

Come Visit the Dia de los Muertos altars at ILS

Julian Samora Study Lounge, 315 Bond Hall

Monday, November 2, 2020

9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

In celebration of Dia de los Muertos, students, faculty & staff approved to be on campus are invited to swing by ILS for a complimentary piece of individually wrapped pan de muerto to go. Visit this year's student created altars dedicated to the victims of police brutality, immigrants that have died crossing the border, and beloved family & friends that have passed away.

Student Essay Scholarship from Upsolve

Upsolve is a national legal services nonprofit funded by the federal government and Harvard University. As a nonprofit that uses tech to help Americans access their civil rights, they are passionate about social innovation. To empower the next generation of change-makers, they are encouraging students to submit short essays on how society can improve access to justice. The winning essay will receive $2,500. For more information about the scholarship program visit <https://upsolve.org/scholarship>.

REGIONAL ENGAGEMENT PROCESS

CALIFORNIA	Linda Lynch   CA Student Hub
WASHINGTON, DC	Erin Aucaer   DC Student Hub
HOUSTON, TX	Anh Tuan Doventry   TX Student Hub

7 STEPS

1. Explore our career development resources.
2. Polish your resume.
3. Set up your Handshake account.
4. Sign up for the Regional Updates.
5. Network!
6. Apply.
7. Update your support network when you land an opportunity.

HOW WE CAN HELP STUDENTS

We can find opportunities, make introductions to alumni or recruiters, and give you insight to getting a job in our region.

HOW YOU CAN HELP US

Do the prep work of setting up Handshake, meeting with the career counselors, and researching target employers. (Steps 1-3) Come to us when you're ready to network!

✪

For students interested in a particular location, utilizing the seven step process helps our staff target specific employers in industries our students are interested in.

We will share the opportunities sent to us by employers & alumni with the list of students interested in our region who qualify for the particular opportunity at hand.

The Regional Engagement Team, currently based in California, DC, and Houston, is a growing team of professionals which will expand to strategic industry markets in the coming years.

Regional Engagement Managers lead the Meruelo Family Center for Career Development's efforts in cultivating relationships with recruiters, industry professionals, and alumni to advance placement of Notre Dame students into top tier internships and full-time positions.

Managers also work directly with students to increase awareness, student applications, and acceptance into internships and full-time jobs. Managers help educate students on available opportunities as well as recruiting cycles and key recruiting information.

Student Sign-Ups:	Undergraduates   Graduate Students
Additionally:	Want to know who we're connected with? Check out our Golden Spreadsheets! Also note that opportunities shared by our contacts will be tagged with "ND Support" label in Handshake.

NATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Undocumented Insights: Fostering Growth and Resilience is a three-part webinar series on October 30, November 6 and November 13 centering the experiences of scholars who identify as formerly/currently undocumented. These webinars will explicitly and critically question, negotiate, and center undocumented positionality. Through these discussions, we hope to expand our understanding of the nuances and needs of undocumented scholars across various stages of academia. Although we recognize the importance of professionalization, effective writing, and scholarly production, this project's aim is to highlight alternative forms of support that are rooted in and account for the insights of undocumented scholars. Please register for this event using this online form.
