Kellogg Institute Virtual Summer Internships

Apply by Monday, May 3, 2021

The Kellogg Institute announces a new summer 2021 competition for undergraduate students to engage in a virtual internship or summer research project. First years, sophomores and juniors may apply to complete an 8-week internship or a research project (8 weeks not required). Many of the partner organizations offer virtual opportunities for students and are happy to work with students to find the right internship for them. Students may also propose to work with organizations they have found on their own or propose to carry out self-designed research. Click here for more information.

Center for Social Concerns McNeill Leadership Fellowship

The McNeill Fellowship invites a select cohort of undergraduates into a year-long leadership development program that integrates elements of personal reflection, skill building, leadership training and opportunities, and community commitment through the lens of CST and active citizenship in order to equip students to respond to 21st century problems and become leaders working for the common good in their communities at Notre Dame and beyond. Learn more and apply by Monday, May 3 on the center website.

MIGRATION JUSTICE: Virtual Summit for College Students

Registration Deadline: May 21

Summit takes place online on June 15-18 | 12-5PM EST Daily

Students will connect and reflect with peers across the country who are committed to more just migration policies and more hospitable campuses, and spend time sharpening organizing skills and action planning for on-campus efforts. Ideal participants are: students who are interested in migration issues. The summit was designed with current advocates AND those who are new to migration issues in mind. Funding available through Mike Hebbeler in the Center for Social Concerns! Email Mike at Michael.H.Hebbeler.2@nd.edu for more info and covering the cost of the summit.

Opportunity to Complete a Confidential Survey to Help with Research by San Diego State University Graduate Student Nora Leyva

You are invited to contribute to a study that is exploring the effect of the reinstatement of DACA on undocumented young adults' aspirations. If you are at least 18 years old and have undocumented status you are eligible to participate in this study. Your participation is completely anonymous and voluntary. To participate you can answer an anonymous survey via Qualtrics that will take approximately 10 minutes to complete here: <https://tinyurl.com/DACA2021>

If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact the principal investigator Nora A. Leyva at nleyva@sdsu.edu.

Your support and collaboration are greatly appreciated.

Next100 is recruiting a second cohort of policy entrepreneurs!

Whether you're a DACA recipient who's been working as an activist, a policy wonk with some research experience under your belt, an organizer fresh off a campaign, or a high school teacher with ideas about how to make education better for everyone, we want you to be part of not just developing policy ideas, but working with communities and partners to translate those ideas into action.

As one of our Next100 Policy Entrepreneurs, you'll join our team in New York City for two years. You'll have a full-time job, with comprehensive benefits, working on driving policy change in New York City, New York State, and/or at the national level. We'll provide mentoring, professional support, opportunities for travel and networking, and policy training to help you drive policy change, hand-in-hand with communities and partners.

Apply by May 31 to be part of a one-of-a-kind, dynamic, collaborative, and inclusive public policy think tank.

PAUL & DAISY
SOROS
FELLOWSHIPS FOR NEW AMERICANS

Each year, the Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowship for New Americans program awards $90,000 fellowship awards to selected undocumented students (with or without DACA) who are pursuing graduate school across various fields throughout the country.
