CAMPUS UPDATES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Planning ahead for summer service and internship opportunities

At Notre Dame, students can look into campus-sponsored summer opportunities through the Kellogg Institute, the Institute for Latino Studies' CCLP internships, the Washington DC program, and the Center for Social Concerns' SSLP programs, among others!!

If you are looking into non-paid internships, then you can seek supplemental funding through this Summer Funding Program.

For students with limited documentation to be employed in the U.S., it is still possible to make a living through work in consulting, freelancing, tutoring, independent contracting and entrepreneurship. There are many ways to apply the skills and education you are gaining right now in internships and future work. Check out success stories and resources at www.undocuhustle.org. Immigrants Rising also has lists of scholarships and fellowships at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Institute for Latino Studies Summer 2022 Cross Cultural Leadership Program

Applications are accepted now through Tuesday, March 1, 2022 at 11:59 pm.

Open to all First Years, Sophomores, Juniors, and rising Seniors in all majors and departments. First priority for placements goes to Latino Studies Supplementary Majors and minors.

The Cross-Cultural Leadership Program (CCLP) connects students with summer on-site internship opportunities in Chicago, Los Angeles, and Washington, D.C. from June 1 – July 29, 2022. As well as virtual internships in other cities. Participation in CCLP is offered at no cost to ND undergraduate students looking to increase their understanding and engagement in Latinx populations.

For additional information visit the ILS website, or contact ILS Associate Director Paloma Garcia-Lopez at paloma.garcia@nd.edu. For a list of participating organizations in each city, visit the list of partners.

CONCERNS

Latinx in the Mathematical Sciences Conference 2022

On March 3-5, 2022, IPAM (Institute for Pure & Applied Mathematics) will host a conference showcasing the achievements of Latinx in the mathematical sciences. The goal of the conference is to encourage Latinx to pursue careers in the mathematical sciences, to promote the advancement of Latinx currently in the discipline, to showcase research being conducted by Latinx at the forefront of their fields, and, finally, to build a community around shared academic interests. The conference will be held on the UCLA campus in Los Angeles, CA. Interested? Contact Assistant Professor of Mathematics Juanita Pinzon Caceido to take part in the ND delegation to this conference. Click here FOR MORE INFORMATION

16th Annual ACC Meeting of the Minds Conference

Deadline to Apply: January 18, 2022

The University of Notre Dame has again been invited to participate in the Annual ACC Meeting of the Minds Conference, hosted by the University of Virginia, April 1-3, 2022, in Charlottesville, VA. This is an opportunity for undergraduate students from universities of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) to present their work in a professional setting and share their work with peers. Research will be presented as posters, oral presentations or performances. More information on the conference will be provided when it becomes available. All costs are covered by the ACC, and Notre Dame can select 5 students to attend. Our deadline for submission is January 18, 2022, but we are reviewing submissions on a rolling basis. <https://cuse.nd.edu/undergraduate-research/funding-research/cuse-grants/grant-types/acc-meeting-of-the-minds-conference/>.

Kellogg International Scholars Program Research Night

Monday, January 31, 6:30pm

Hesburgh Center for International Studies Auditorium

If you are a first year interested in applying to the Kellogg International Scholars Program, or a Faculty Fellow of the Kellogg Institute or the Keough School of Global Affairs interested in working with the program, this event is for you! Come learn about the research current International Scholars are doing with their faculty advisers. Then network with students and faculty to get your questions answered.

Summer 2022 NDnano Undergraduate Research Fellowship opportunities

Deadline to Apply: February 9, 2022

Applications are now being accepted for the summer 2022 NDnano Undergraduate Research Fellowship (NURF) program. Several projects are available to choose from, and the program is open to current freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Awardees will work next summer with Notre Dame faculty in engineering and science who are affiliated with Notre Dame Nanoscience & Technology.

The fellowships are full time (40 hours/week) and provide a total stipend of $6,000 over a 10-week period. (Work authorization required, DACA recipients are eligible)

Complete program details, project descriptions, and application instructions are available on the NDnano website at: <https://nano.nd.edu/opportunities/ndnano-undergraduate-research-fellowships-nurf/>

Feel free to direct any questions to Heidi Deethardt at ndnano@nd.edu.

NATIONAL UPDATES AND OPPORTUNITIES

The UCLA Dream Resource Center is now accepting applications for the 2022 Dream Summer fellowship.

APPLY NOW to become a fellow or host organization for the 2022 Dream Summer fellowship!

I am writing to see if you have any students who might be interested in an unpaid internship at Monterrosa Law Group. Interns are assigned to one of our four lawyers at the firm and assist in immigration and, sometimes, criminal defense cases. Typical work includes drafting letters, statements, reviewing documents, and translating documents.

Interns are expected to be present in the office for up to 8 hours each week. Because we are one of the only fully bilingual firms in the county, Spanish fluency is a prerequisite.

Potential applicants may learn more about the firm at <https://www.monterrosalawgroup.com/> and may reach out to me directly with any questions.

Applications can be sent to me directly, consisting of a resume and a cover letter explaining interest in the internship and how it fits with education and career goals.

Thank you,
Sean O'Brien
